NARRATIVE:

Randall Free has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include evading a peace officer with disregard of safety, inflicting corporal injury on a spouse, fighting in a public place, DUI alcohol and drugs, disorderly conduct, contempt of court, violating a court order to prevent domestic violence, obstruction of a peace officer, vandalism and failing to report . He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 16 month term for evading a peace officer with disregard for the safety of others. Free was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 21, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Free qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading a peace officer with disregard for the safety of others is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
